Dear Valued Church Mutual Customer,

As part of our mission to Protect the Greater Good, Church Mutual Insurance Company believes helping our young, vibrant religious leaders today will ensure strong faith-based communities of tomorrow. Our newly formed foundation, CM CARES, is pleased to support the future of religious communities like yours through a new scholarship program.

Offering 50 scholarships of $5,000 each to our religious leaders of tomorrow.

In 2017, CM CARES will offer $250,000 in scholarships for eligible religious scholars across the country. Religious students of all denominations are encouraged to apply. So, if you know someone who is currently enrolled in an advanced degree religious studies program, be sure to let him or her know about this tremendous opportunity.

Remember, the religious scholars of today represent our religious leaders of tomorrow. They are committed to the greater good of our communities, and they represent our hope for the future. A $5,000 scholarship can provide important support in helping them realize a lifetime of service in ministry.

For complete eligibility details and information about how interested students can apply, visit churchmutual.com/cmcares-scholars.

CM CARES will be accepting applications January 3 through April 15, 2017. Religious scholarships will be awarded in May 2017. Interested students should apply as soon as possible.

Please help us spread the word by sharing the attached flier with your area religious community and theological institutions. This exciting opportunity can make a big difference in the lives of religious scholars, ensuring your faith will continue to flourish for future generations.

Sincerely,

Richard V. Poirier
President and CEO
